Rome Officially Denies Report Italian Officers Are Killed From Ambush—Ethiopian Minister to Great Britain Admits Possibility of Attack in the Near Future by Peasants

LONDON, July 7 (P)—Reports, which Italian officials denied, tonight said eight or nine Italian officers, among them the noted flyer Antonio Locatelli, had been killed in an Ethiopian ambush.

In Rome it was stated officially the reports were not true, but reliable sources there said an unidentified Italian air general and nine aviators, including Locatelli, were killed in an Ethiopian skirmish several days ago.

KILLED ON LANDING
The reports, which the Reuters Agency said came from unofficial sources, asserted the officers were killed as soon as they landed in three planes to establish a garrison at the request of Jimma Province residents.

The victims were said to have included a deputy chief of air staff, whose name was not given.

Jimma Province, southwest of Addis Ababa, is not yet completely occupied by Italian troops.

RESCUED FROM SEA
Antonio Locatelli, then a lieutenant, was rescued from the sea off Greenland in August of 1934 by the United States cruiser Richmond.

BUSES WRECKED IN STRIKE WAR

Violence Breaks Out in Cincinnati—Many Persons Slightly Injured

CINCINNATI, July 7 (P)—Three company buses were wrecked, one after it had been pummeled six miles into the Hamilton County Courthouse yard, late today when violence broke out for the third straight day at the Remington-Rand factory in suburban Norwood, where a strike is in progress.

Workers, starting home in the company buses, said about thirty of their number were battered or injured by flying glass and thrown stones.

Hospitals reported that none had been treated for such injuries, and police said all were of a minor nature.

GATHER AT GATES
A crowd estimated by Remington-Rand officials to number from 500 to 1,000 persons gathered at the gates when the 250 or more employees who went to work in defiance of the strike were dismissed for the day.

One bus, filled with women, was stoned and chased through crowded business streets to the courthouse, where the driver rammed his machine against a stone wall in turning inside the courthouse yard. The women said strikers were responsible.

BUS OVERTURNED
Another bus, the company reported, was overturned as it went to the plant to pick up the employees.

A third, pursued down a busy thoroughfare, was wrecked, they said, when two passenger cars nosed in front of it.

Police said no one was injured seriously when the bus was wrecked, but that some of the fifteen or twenty occupants suffered minor cuts.

Doukhobors Held After Nude March

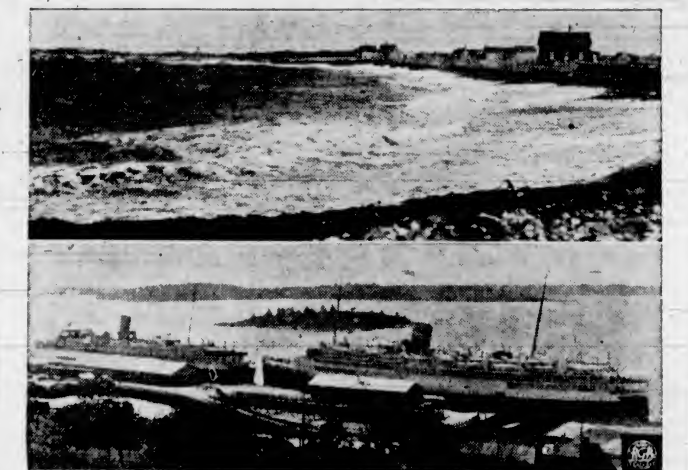

NELSON, B.C., July 7 (P)—Two Doukhobors, whose names were withheld, were in police custody here tonight, charged with connection with recent disturbing incidents at Grand Forks and Millstream, B.C.

The two, along with one other, had been sought since Dominion Day, when some ten or fifteen Doukhobors are alleged to have paraded in the nude at Millstream.

They were arrested at Grand Forks, following another disturbing incident there yesterday. The other is still being sought.

Nova Scotia Town to Celebrate Birthday

On July 27 next, the people of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, will down tools to celebrate the most important week in the annals of that picturesque Nova Scotia town. On that day Yarmouth will be 175 years old, and thousands of native sons and visitors will journey to the "Gateway to Western Scotia" to join enthusiastically in the celebrations. Our pictures show (top) the ocean side of Yarmouth Bar, while below is the steamship terminal, where fine steamers link Nova Scotia with New England and New York.

Huge Increase Evident in Canadian Tourist Traffic This Year

OTTAWA, July 7 (P)—Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Transport, said tonight the 1936 tourist season in Canada "is likely to approach the peak year of 1929 and will certainly exceed by a considerable amount the traffic of last year. Demand for travel information on Canada has been greater this year than at any time in the last seven years," he said.

In May, 88,721 automobiles entered Canada for stays not exceeding sixty days, or an increase over the corresponding month of 1935 of 25,087, national revenue figures showed. The Immigration Department reported 1,224,661 visitors entered Canada in May against 1,061,886 in May, 1935, an increase of 162,775.

Rain Forecast for Parched Sections of Canada's Wheat Belt

Break Expected in Ten-Day Dry Spell in Prairie Provinces—No Relief in Sight Yet in United States Drought-Affected Areas

WINNIPEG, July 7 (P)—A stifling pall of heat that spread destruction throughout Western Canada's southern wheat belt gave promise of abating tonight. Rain clouds that gathered over Southwestern Manitoba and Central Saskatchewan forecast a break in a ten-day dry spell that parched grain and pasture growth and reduced the average of the prairie wheat crop to a percentage below normal.

Scattered rainfall and lower temperatures in South Central Saskatchewan turned wheat prices from a four-day ascent on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Values reacted in late trading from a one-cent gain to losses of 1-1/2 to 1-3/4 cents, with July quoted at 91-1/4 to 91-3/4, and December at 90-3/4 to 90-5/8.

HEAT CLAIMS LIVES
CHICAGO, July 7 (P)—More than a score of deaths were counted tonight in the harvest of havoc wrought by record-breaking heat and month-old drought.

At least ten fatalities were attributed to the heat here tonight. Continued on Page 2, Column 3

RAILWAY WORKERS CAUSING TROUBLE

Gang Near Regina, Strike for Food They Prefer and Want Finer Crockery

REGINA, July 7 (P)—Railway workers at the camp near Jamieson, west of here, went on strike tonight demanding better food. The men were addressed by Matt Shaw, Louis Binder, Art King, all of Regina, and other officials of the Trans-Canada Union at an open air meeting Monday night, after which they returned to work, giving twenty-four hours' notice to comply with their demands.

The men asked for cereal and eggs at breakfast, fresh green vegetables, fresh milk, and soup once a day, a new supply of crockery and utensils, and a commissary at which to buy soap and tobacco.

Twenty-three of a gang of thirty backed the demands.

GREAT BRITAIN PREPARES FOR FURTHER OUTLAY FOR DEFENCE

Still More Millions Must Be Provided to Insure National Safety—Navy, Army and Air Force Each to Submit Supplementary Estimates For Their Immediate Requirements

High Standard Essential in Case of Sudden Attack

LONDON, July 7 (P)—Great Britain prepared tonight to spend another huge sum, estimated at between £15,000,000 and £25,000,000 ($75,000,000-$125,000,000), on defence.

Developments in the European situation, it was learned had convinced ministers that the urgency of national defence must take precedence over all else, including all considerations of "balancing the budget."

STILL MORE MONEY
With the country already facing an overdraft as a result of the rearmament programme, the Army, Navy and Air Force will issue additional supplementary estimates on Thursday, asking the House of Commons to appropriate still more money to build ships and airplanes, and to whip the mechanical action of land forces into first-class shape.

The Navy, which has had ample opportunity to review its theoretical strength or weakness during the Mediterranean crisis, may ask as much as £10,000,000 extra, members of Parliament believed.

ITALY TO SEEK TRADE ACCORDS

High Fascists Planning to Build Up New International Trading Structure

ROME, July 7 (P)—A completely new international trade structure for Italy was envisioned tonight by high Fascists. It was said authoritatively the Government was sending out special missions to other nations to seek new commercial agreements. Officials said the reconstruction of the nation's foreign trade system would be accomplished "without haste or preference."

At the same time, they indicated the Italian Government was in no hurry to accept an invitation to join other Locarno Treaty signatories in a conference concerning Germany's resumption of normalcy in the Rhineland and the possibilities for a new European peace structure.

TWO BASIC POINTS
As for the nation's new foreign trade structure, two basic points were suggested:

1. Nations which desire to sell to Italy must buy from Italy.

2. Nations wishing to sell to Italy must not compete with products already provided by Italian agriculture and industry.

Italy's position on these two last points was described by Virginio Gayda, authoritative editorial writer, as more secure than before the Italo-Ethiopian war with its consequent imposition of sanctions.

PREMIER IS TO MEET PRESIDENT

Mackenzie King Accepts Governor-General's Invitation for Social Visit at Quebec

OTTAWA, July 7 (P)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King will go to Quebec to meet President Roosevelt when the President pays a visit to the Governor-General on July 31.

The Prime Minister said the visit would be of a purely social nature. He could not say whether the Governor-General was contemplating a return visit to Washington.

Mr. King, who, with Hon. J. E. McPherson, Minister of Fisheries, is going to Balthurst, N.B., tomorrow to attend the funeral of Hon. P. J. Veniot, said he would stop off at Quebec on his way back to Ottawa to talk over some matters with the Governor-General.

CAUGHT TUNNELING UNDER PRISON WALL

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 7 (P)—Seven Washington State Penitentiary convicts were placed in solitary confinement here tonight, as penitentiary officials thwarted an attempt to tunnel under the prison wall from the prison canteen.

Warden J. M. McWaters said he had noticed the attempt three days ago, but did not act until officials were sure of the identity of the men involved.

OCCUPATIONS TO BE ENDED

French Government Warns Strikers Against Occupying Places of Business

PARIS, July 7 (P)—France served notice tonight she will keep strikers from occupying places of business—even an angry motor plant workers were reported to have seized and imprisoned two company directors.

Roger Salengro, Minister of the Interior, told the Senate, just before the Government received a 230-to-1 vote of confidence: "The Government will put into action all appropriate means to put an end to the occupations."

HELD FOR THREE HOURS
The newspaper Le Journal, coincidentally, said strikers at the Citroen automobile factory, near Chaumont, had locked up two company directors after the directors refused the demands for the dismissal of two engineers. The men were released. Government officials said, after three hours' captivity.

Striking at the extreme Right, the Government started prosecution of Rightist League leaders on charges of inciting to riot and attempting to reorganize dissolved groups such as the "Croix de Feu."

Several minor clauses were adopted by the general conference here, but the Soviet Union, backed by Turkey, still was far from agreement with Britain.

Britain asks freedom of the straits in case of war, in which Turkey is neutral, continuation of a form of the present straits commission, and two weeks' notice to Turkey by all foreign nations intending to send warships through the straits.

WANT LIMITATIONS
The Russian continued their fight for free passage through the straits for all their warships, at the same time imposing limitations on non-Black Sea powers. Turkey suggested freedom of passage for all Russian warships now existent or to be built, but the British delegate continued on Page 2, Column 5

Continues to Have Attacks Of Sneezing

LAFLECHE, Sask., July 7 (P)—Still sneezing, Alice Lizee, sixteen, was back at her home here today after a trip to Winnipeg for diagnosis. She has had repeated attacks of sneezing for three weeks.

Winnipeg doctors examined her, but were unable to halt the attacks which, they said, would gradually cease.

The girl's general health is good and she is bright and cheerful.

HOWELL, Mich., July 7 (P)—Hundred-degree temperature roasting the little community of Hell, in Southern Livingston County today. The hot weather lifted the mercury to a point 108 degrees above that of last January, when Hell "froze over" in one of Michigan's coldest winters.

YOUNG JOCKEY FATALLY HURT

Jerry Snider Crushed When Horse Falls During Race At Lansdowne

VANCOUVER, July 7 (P)—Jerry Snider, young jockey, died in hospital tonight shortly after his mount, Woodhill, stumbled and two other horses plowed into them at Lansdowne Park race track.

Suffering a fractured skull, broken ribs and other injuries, Snider was taken to the Vancouver General Hospital late today and succumbed an hour after being admitted.

TO RETIRE FROM CITY BENCH IN AUGUST

Magistrate George Jay

WILL celebrate his seventy-fifth birthday on August 26 by retiring from his judicial positions of police magistrate for the City of Victoria and stipendiary magistrate for the County of Victoria.

He was appointed police magistrate in 1907, on the recommendation of Sir Richard McBride, at that time Premier of the Province.

PLEBISCITE STILL OPEN

B.C. Cabinet Postpones Decision on Victoria Petition For Beer and Wines

While no action will be forthcoming at this time, the British Columbia Government held the door open yesterday on the issue of a beer and wines plebiscite in Victoria, giving leave to the Moderation League to renew its application for the plebiscite later in the year.

Premier Pattullo presided at a final session of the Cabinet prior to his departure for the North today, and, though the subject was discussed, no decision or finality in the Government's attitude was reached on the issue.

Later, the Premier got in touch with officials of the league, stating that the request was still under advisement and would be considered again on his return from the North.

BRUSSELS, July 7 (P)—Premier Paul Van Zeeland, of Belgium, will call an eight-day conference of representatives of Locarno powers beginning July 16, reliable sources said today.

Victoria Police and County Magistrate Retiring in August

George Jay to Leave Posts on His Seventy-Fifth Birthday After Twenty-Nine Years of Service—May Continue With Municipal Courts

GEORGE Jay will retire as police magistrate of the City of Victoria and as stipendiary magistrate for the County of Victoria on August 26, when he celebrates his seventy-fifth birthday.

Although still enjoying good health, Magistrate Jay is required by statute to step down. However, this rule does not apply to the judicial positions he holds in connection with the municipalities of Sanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt.

Mr. Jay was appointed to the office of police magistrate of this city in the year 1907, succeeding the late Heesekiah Hall in the position. His acceptance of the office was made on the special request of Sir

Richard McBride, who was at that time Premier of the province.

Women's Institute Makes Magnificent Gift to Solarium

J. W. Hudson Formally Opens X-Ray Room, Presented by Royal Oak Ladies at Cost of $5,000.—Throng of Visitors Attends Ceremony

THE amazing achievement of the little Royal Oak Women's Institute in raising, within the short space of sixteen months, the sum of $5,000 for the furnishing of an X-ray room in the Queen Alexandra Solarium, received public recognition yesterday afternoon with the formal opening of the department.

J. W. Hudson, president of the Solarium Board, officiated at the conclusion of his speech of thanks and congratulation, Miss Oldfield, president of the Royal Oak Institute, and the other two members of the committee specially responsible for the success of the X-ray fund campaign, Mrs. Mead-Robins and Mrs. Florence Reeves, were introduced to the audience of about 250 who were present to applaud their valiant effort. Later visitors inspected the new equipment, and were also conducted over the institute by the attention of the improvements. The afternoon programme concluded with the serving of afternoon tea by the Cobble Hill Institute.

"MAGNIFICENT EFFORT"

"It is with the greatest appreciation that the Solarium board of directors acknowledges the magnificent effort of the Royal Oak Women's Institute in raising a sufficient sum of money—$5,000—to install this equipment. I wish to pay my own personal tribute also to these splendid women," said Mr. Hudson, in the speech he made prior to declaring the new X-ray room open. He briefly recited the inception of the idea, which was the direct outcome of Mrs. Mead-Robins' having had her attention called to the discomfort, inconvenience, and suffering caused to the little Solarium patients in having to drive all the way to the Jubilee Hospital for X-ray treatment, and photographs. This was brought to the attention of the Royal Oak Women's Institute; a committee of six was struck, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Reeves; and in December, 1935, less than sixteen months later, the Solarium directors had been presented by the Institute with the cheque for $5,000. This equipment which it had been possible to purchase with this sum would magnificently serve the needs of the Solarium. In conclusion Mr. Hudson thanked the Women's Institutes of the Province in general for the fine practical help they had given the Solarium. Miss Grace McCullough, registered X-ray technician, who received her training with Dr. Currie McMillan, radiologist of the Winnipeg General Hospital, is in charge of the new X-ray department at the Solarium, and spent a busy-hour explaining the equipment to yesterday's visitors.

The equipment, which occupies a well-lighted room at the north end of the original unit of the Solarium, is the new model General Electric shock-proof X-ray unit. It consists of X-ray Bucky table, which combines the table on which the patient rests, and the Potter-Bucky diaphragm, which is used for the radiograph work in heavier parts of the body; the oil-immersed X-ray tube and control stand; the fluorescent screen; the stereoscope, and the plate changer. This is all operable by one person, and is the very latest of its kind, coming from the Vancouver manufacturers direct. Installed about the latter part of April, the plant has already been used about thirty times.

This is also a completely equipped darkroom for the development of the plates. This is also in charge of Nurse McCullough.

OTHER CHANGES

The physio-therapy department, which formerly occupied this room, has been moved into what was previously the kitchen, recently transferred into the remodeled basement of the Shrine Unit. All this expense has been met by the Royal Oak Women's gift of $5,000. The new kitchen is thorough, by up to date, fitted with dumb-waiter for conveying the food to the main floor, where it is distributed to the wards; also with a new refrigerator, and adjacent storerooms. The kitchen a cheerful dining room has been fitted up for the staff.

ANOTHER $5,000

Some amusement was caused when Mr. Hudson laughingly stated that the board was now looking for an additional $5,000 to install a central heating plant. It has been estimated that this would effect a saving of $1,000 a year, as at the present time there are three furnaces requiring not only an unnecessary outlay for fuel, but also for attendance. The central heating plant would be fitted with an iron fireman. In making this statement, Mr. Hudson announced that Mrs. Mead-Robins, of the Royal Oak Institute, just prior to the beginning of the afternoon programme, had handed him a further $20 she had received toward the X-ray equipment quite recently. Miss Oldfield, on behalf of the Royal Oak Institute, expressed appreciation for the flattering recognition given their achievement. Everyone had been most helpful, and donations had been received from as far away as Toronto.

THOSE PRESENT

Dr. Glenn Simpson, superintendent of the Solarium; Nurse McCullough and the matron, Miss A. P. de C. O'Grady, welcomed the guests yesterday, and the entire nursing staff, numbering twelve, was on hand to assist in conducting visitors over the institution, which at the present time has just a few less than its full complement of sixty-five children.

The Solarium board was represented by the president, J. W. Hudson, and Mrs. Hudson; the vice-president, Herbert Anson, M.P.P., and Mrs. Anson; Mrs. Curtis Sampson, Charles Williams, Mrs. William Peddie, Mrs. Gale, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. French, J. P. Babcock, and the city office staff, Miss F. A. Russell and Miss V. Cation.

Mrs. T. C. Robson, president of the South Vancouver Island District Women's Institute; Mrs. F. O. Christmas, honorary vice-president of the Cowichan Women's Institute; Miss A. Law, acting supervisor of the Cowichan Health Centre; Mrs. T. P. Barrie, Mrs. J. Allen, Mrs. G. Frame, Mrs. S. Samuelson, Mrs. H. Dietrich and Mrs. Campbell. Assisting with the serving were the Shawanigan Girl Guides.

APPEALS FOR BETTER ROADS

Warner Baxter, Noted Actor, Sails for South but Will Return in September

Even the showery weather he experienced up-Island during his month's stay could not hide the beauties and attractions of Vancouver Island from him, but the roads were disappointing. Warner Baxter, veteran character actor of the screen, said as he boarded the S.S. H. P. Alexander with Mrs. Baxter and his double, Frank McCreath, last night, bound for home.

On several occasions bad roads caused Mr. Baxter to turn back from trips to trout waters, he explained, in making an appeal to the Island to lay down good roads and thereby help itself and make the stay of visitors more pleasant.

The star will be back in September, bringing three others of the Hollywood movie colony, Dick Powell, Richard Barthelmess and Ronald Colman. It will be a star party, he said, with a laugh.

Vancouver Island is a paradise in many respects, Mr. and Mrs. Baxter found, and they did not mind the rain, as they regarded it as a "welcome change from the continuous sunshine in California."

In September, Mr. Baxter plans to rent a boat and hunt and fish along the coast. He may even go as far north as Alaska.

FLORAL TOPIC IS DISCUSSED

S. W. Raven Gives Instructive Address on Cultivation of Chrysanthemums

The cultivation of chrysanthemums from slips to blooms was ably described by S. W. Raven, in an instructive address given at last night's meeting of the Victoria Horticultural Society in the City Hall. Duncan D. McTavish presided.

Chrysanthemums were not grown to any great extent in Victoria, and yet in one catalogue alone the speaker said, he had seen 1,500 varieties listed.

Mr. Raven deplored the splitting of chrysanthemums by using that portion of the plant that lay under ground. The plant should be propagated by taking slips at least an inch above the ground and nipping the stem as close to a leaf joint as possible without injuring the leaf.

These slips should be planted in firm sand to root and then transplanted to ordinary flats, and later planted outside.

The speaker then described budding and nipping back, and other details important to the securing of good growth and good blooms. Cultivation of the soil, irrigation and fertilizing also were touched upon. A question period followed the address.

Winners of the exhibit contest were: green pea display, first, J. Talbot; second, N. Chamberlain; exhibitors, first, J. Talbot; second, H. Foster; roses, first, H. O. Simpson; second, D. Brown.

out plans to triple its strength, is expected to ask almost as much. THE ARMY'S NEED

The Army, attempting to reach a high standard of mechanical and technical strength, may require between £6,000,000 and £7,000,000. The Navy has already been granted £80,230,000 ($401,150,000), representing £69,800,000 provided by the budget, plus £10,430,000 voted by the House of Commons since that time.

Members of Parliament expected an unbroken department heads to seek parliamentary approval for the additional sums next week.

The War Office announced that seventeen units of Territorial infantry, the Home Guard, were being converted into anti-aircraft batteries to defend the industrialized Midlands and North.

HIGH STANDARD NEEDED

The announcement said: "An exceptionally high standard of efficiency and readiness to defend this country against a host of air attacks will be necessary, since the new role entails such units being ready for action immediately on the outbreak of war, or even earlier, and no opportunity for completion of training after mobilization can be expected."

In one of the wildest markets in months, wheat zoomed to a new high price for the season—a peak since August of the drought year of 1934—and then was whirled downward almost a cent below yesterday's close on an avalanche of selling orders. Rainfall in the Saskatchewan sector of the drought territory was credited with causing the reversal. After selling as high as $1.10 a bushel, the first serious break in the dry spell market ended with July delivery at $1.05-5-8 to $1.05-3-4.

The Italian had abandoned plans to fly to the North Pole, and left Reykjavik, Iceland, with the American, and the two flyers, Lowell Smith and Erik Nelson, on a perilous 285-mile hop to Greenland. The Americans reached Greenland, but Locatelli was found 125 miles east of Cape Farwell.

REPORTS GIVEN CREDENCE

LONDON, July 7 (CP-Havas).—Reports from Djibouti that Ethiopian military leaders were poised for a guerrilla campaign against the Italian invaders under cover of the rain rains were given credence by Dr. W. C. Martin, Ethiopian minister to Great Britain, in an interview today.

The reports came from the correspondent of The Daily Herald at Djibouti, French Somaliland, who predicted the raids would include raids on Addis Ababa and the dismantling of the Addis Ababa-Djibouti railway.

PEASANTS MAY ATTACK

Dr. Martin said he had not received any direct information regarding the possibility of peasant attacks.

FINDS ALL-BRAN BETTER THAN PILLS, SALTS, AND OILS

This Natural Food Relieved His Constipation

"We quote from his letter: '... So I decided to make a fair test (of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN), with the result that I felt much improved. I have quit all laxatives since 1929. 'For 34 years, I had to take pills, salts, oils, teas, or other fluids, which did more harm than good. ALL-BRAN now is our breakfast cereal for the whole family.' —Mr. Martin Wroblewski (address upon request)."

Meals low in "bulk" often lead to constipation. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides generous "bulk" which absorbs moisture, forms a soft mass, and gently exercises and cleanses the system. ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B and iron.

Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. How much better to use this natural food in place of patent medicines.

Use as a cereal with milk or cream, or in cooking. ALL-BRAN is much more effective than part-bran products. It is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ont.

MORAL BACKING FOR HIGHWAY

Land Grants or Private Concessions Are Not Contemplated, Says Premier

While British Columbia is prepared to support any possible action by the Governments of the United States and Canada to construct the Alaska-Yukon highway, such support would be moral rather than financial, Premier Pattullo indicated yesterday, as he prepared to leave at daylight today for Dawson City by seaplane.

The Premier discounted statements attributed to a supporter of his Government while at Washington, D.C., that this Province might be prepared to place land grants at the disposal of the road builders, and reiterated that British Columbia would not countenance the farming out of such construction to a private concern on a concession basis.

Leaving by air from Esquimalt Harbor at 6 a.m. today, the Premier will be flown to Prince Rupert, from whence he will go on later to Stewart, the Queen Charlotte Islands, Atlin and Dawson City. Ben Hethy, his secretary, will accompany him, in a seaplane piloted by E. C. W. Dobbin.

The Premier will be away from Victoria for eight or ten days, and will cover territory by air in that time that would require weeks by ordinary means of transportation, he said.

VANCOUVER MAY HAVE BIG MILL

Rayon Plant Employing 1,000 Men Proposed—Seek Electric Power

VANCOUVER, July 7 (AP)—A proposal for construction of a $20,000,000 rayon manufacturing mill, supplied with power from the city's Cheakamus reserve, and giving regular employment to nearly 1,000 men, was before the Vancouver civic utilities committee today.

J. P. Meahan, of Vancouver, acting for an unnamed party, said his principals were anxious for a decision and aldermen agreed to discuss the matter at a special meeting next Monday.

Proposals to advance the city $100,000,000 or more to purchase the British Columbia Electric Railway Company's light, power and street railway facilities, were also renewed by the representative. The matter was first brought before the city about eighteen months ago.

Meahan said his principals had definitely decided to proceed with the mill, and it was up to the council whether the company operated with power from Cheakamus or from one of several other available locations. He said the plant would require about 50,000 horsepower.

MAN IS ARRESTED IN LIQUOR STORE

Police Arrive Quickly on Scene After Window Smashed in Johnson Street Branch

The crash of falling glass that could be heard two blocks away sent police and a night pedestrian to Johnson Street, just off Douglas Street, to find a man, who gave the name of Edward Evans, or Thomas McFadden, inside the Government Liquor Store with two bottles of Scotch whiskey in his coat pockets. He was arrested.

When taken to the police station the man gave his name as Edward Evans and later said his name was Thomas McFadden. He was booked under both names and will appear in police court this morning. He is believed to be from Nanaimo and had been in the city for several days, police said.

TWO ROUND-TRIP FLIGHTS PLANNED

Dick Merrill and Clyde Pangborn Expect to Cross Ocean Within Next Month

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP)—Dick Merrill, senior pilot for Eastern Air Lines, and Clyde Pangborn, veteran flyer, today disclosed they plan two round-trip trans-Atlantic flights.

Merrill is going to accompany Harry Richman, New York orchestra leader, on a flight to London and back, which will take, they hope, no more than thirty-two hours' flying time.

Pangborn hopes to fly to Paris and back to publish the Texas Centennial.

Both flights are as a publicity stunt and one for a record, will take place within a month, it was stated.

BY-ELECTION IN AUGUST

OTTAWA, July 7 (AP)—A by-election will be held in Wright County Quebec, August 10, to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons caused by the death of P. W. Perrin. Liberal members for that constituency. Nominations will take place one week earlier, August 3, the Government announced today.

Perseverance, common sense and then more perseverance, and you have the three essentials in success.

NEARLY 1,000 PAPERS WILL CARRY ARTICLES ON ATTRACTIONS HERE

Assurance that illustrated articles about Vancouver Island will soon be distributed to some 950 newspapers in Canada, United States and in China has been received by the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau during the past week.

The Automobile Club of Michigan informed the bureau that it had arranged for 300 papers in the State to carry articles. Solyu Chow, executive director of the Union of Editors in Kwangtung Province, China, yesterday was given a number of photographs and descriptive material about the Island. Several days ago the NEA news service advised the bureau it was sending an illustrated article on Island fishing to 600 large newspapers throughout North America.

STATESMAN OF SOVIET IS DEAD

George Tchicherin, Former Commissar for Foreign Affairs, Ends Career

MOSCOW, July 7 (AP)—George Tchicherin, former Commissar of Foreign Affairs, died today. He was sixty-four.

Known as one of the ablest of Soviet statesmen, he assumed direction of the Soviet Union's foreign policy shortly after the revolution, and held it until failing health obliged him to relinquish the post in 1930. He was succeeded by Maxim Litvinov, the present Foreign Commissar.

OLD REVOLUTIONARY

Tchicherin was an old revolutionary. He left the country after the uprising of 1905 and lived in Germany, France and England, returning to accept an important part in the Bolshevik Government immediately after it was constituted.

Tchicherin was the son of an official who served the Czars in the Foreign Office for many years. He entered the diplomatic service upon graduation from the University of St. Petersburg.

In 1897 he joined the revolutionary movement, and seven years later left the diplomatic service, renouncing his estate and went to Germany, where he studied the German Social Democratic movement.

Illness prevented him from taking a very active part in the 1905 revolution, but for many years he engaged in revolutionary activities in London, Paris and Berlin.

He was imprisoned in England after the Russian Revolution in 1917, and exchanged in 1918 for Sir George Buchanan, British Ambassador to Russia.

Inscription on Egg Is Taken to Portend Something Happening

Hundreds Flock to Ontario Farm to See Egg With Wording "Jesus Comes" in Raised Letters—Photographer Breaks Shell

LINDSAY, Ont., July 7.—The strange egg that R. J. Copeland said his giant black hen laid with the raised inscription, "Jesus Comes," is no more. It was broken by an over-anxious amateur photographer and its contents drained and eaten by a preacher. The egg, Copeland farm near Lindsay, provided the text of his sermon. The inscription portends something about to happen. It is a warning, flocked by the hundreds to the and a sign.

Rev. R. A. Dawson, of the Apostolic Church, where Copeland and his family are members, saw the egg, looked it over carefully, preached his Sunday sermon and then ate the egg's contents.

SAYS EGG A WARNING.
"I believe the egg is a warning of the coming of Christ," said the minister. "I am convinced it is a similar instance to the 'Bible' spider's web spun in a Chicago shoe-maker's window about sixteen years ago. It had the identical inscription 'Jesus Comes.'"

"I used the egg as a basis of a sermon in my church Sunday morning and displayed it to members of the congregation, who were much impressed. After the message on the spider's web, and a similar one on another egg some years ago, there was an extended period of unsettled conditions throughout the world."

"I certainly believe the egg is a definite warning and a sign of the last days, as we are told in the Bible that there will be signs in divers places."

NEW MEMBERS OF BAR TAKE OATHS

Mr. Justice Murphy Extends Welcome in Ceremony at Supreme Court Here Yesterday

In the Supreme Court here yesterday Mr. Justice Murphy, after three new members of the bar had taken the oaths required for call and admission and one, George A. Davidson, had been duly admitted following practice elsewhere in the province, welcomed the new members of the profession to the practice of law in this province.

The applicants were introduced by Lindley Crease, K.C., representing the Bar Association of the province, and in doing so Mr. Crease suggested that in due course possibly one or more of them might become members of the judiciary.

Mr. Justice Murphy wished them all marked success in their chosen profession. He hoped that the suggestion by Mr. Crease of elevation to the bench might be the lot of all of them. He expressed the hope that the responsibility that they were assuming as members of the profession might be realized by them and that it would devolve upon them to live up to the highest traditions of that profession.

In addition to Mr. Davidson, those who took the oath as barristers and solicitors were William Hopkins Quirk Cameron, Vancouver; Lawrence Sherwood Herchmer, Fernie; and Hilliard Lyle Jettie, Trail.

James E. T. McMillen, who was in the capital on Monday prepared to be present, went over to Vancouver and will appear with another class which will be sworn in on the Mainland.

DROWNED UNDER BOOM OF LOGS

Worker at Fanny Bay Loses Life By Fall From Boomstick—Body Recovered

COURTENAY, July 7.—Searchers today had recovered the body of H. F. Wager, thirty-eight-year-old employee of the Tolem Shingle Mill, Fanny Bay, who was drowned yesterday when he fell from a boomstick.

Witnesses of the accident dived under the boom logs in an unsuccessful attempt to rescue Wager. His body was recovered with grappling irons more than an hour later.

A bruise on his skull indicated he had struck his head and was stunned in the fall.

The pulmotor of the Courtenay Fire Brigade was summoned, but failed to revive Wager. He is survived by his family at Union Bay.

Case for Defence Opens in County Court Trial Here

In the trial of C. Harold Tait in the County Court before Judge J. N. Ellis, Vancouver, the accused has entered pleas of not guilty to charges of theft and breach of trust arising out of the recent Van Oudenaal-Potter case.

The accused, who is being defended by Stuart Henderson, elected speedy trial, and yesterday hearing of evidence for the Crown was completed. Tait was on the stand in his own defence, and will be cross-examined this morning when court resumes. It is likely that other witnesses for the defence will be called.

Henry C. Hall, K.C., is Crown counsel.

Obituary

KUWABARA.—The funeral of George Wataru Kuwabara, four-year-and-eleven-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rempel Kuwabara, took place yesterday afternoon. Relatives and a large gathering of friends were present and beautiful flowers covered the casket and the floral racks at the chapel. The pallbearers were J. Doi, L. Hotta, H. Doi, M. Kuwabara, A. Kuwabara and K. Kuwabara. Rev. J. Kawasaki officiated. The remains were laid at rest in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

ROBERTSON.—There passed away suddenly yesterday, at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, Denise Mary Josephine, only daughter of Mrs. Margaret Robertson, of Langford, aged four years. She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her mother, one brother, Alan Stewart, her grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Switzer, and several aunts and uncles.

ABLETT.—The funeral services for Mrs. Ida Charlotte Ablett will be held in Haywards B.C. Funeral Chapel this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. James Hood officiating. Interment will be made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

TAIT.—The funeral of Mrs. Norma Tait was held yesterday morning. Rev. F. W. Anderson officiating, a large number of sorrowing friends being present. Interment was made in Esquimalt Cemetery.

HOUSTON.—Dean Quinlan officiated yesterday morning at Christ Church Cathedral at funeral services for the late Mrs. Harriett Elizabeth Houston. Many flowers were received testifying to the high esteem in which Mrs. Houston was held. The following acted as pallbearers: H. J. Hinton, E. H. Quinlan, R. F. Hinton, W. M. Colman, P. S. Hinton and F. Morse. The remains were laid at rest in Royal Oak Burial Park.

CARLIN.—Word has been received here, by letter, of the death of Marshall, Minn., of Joseph D. Carlin, a former resident of this city. Mr. Carlin died on June 16 and was buried at Seattle on June 20. With his brother, the late Michael Carlin, he was in the real estate business in Victoria under the firm name of Carlin Brothers. He was afterwards a general agent at Field B.C. He was sixty-four years old.

FEVERISH RACE FOR ARMAMENTS

Prof. F. H. Soward Reviews European History at Kiwanis Meeting

Europe faced a new situation in which all nations were in a feverish armament race. Unless there was a complete change in policy, catastrophe was sure to follow, Prof. F. H. Soward, of the University of British Columbia, told the Kiwanis Club at the Empress Hotel yesterday. He was introduced by the club president, William Luney.

According to the British foreign policy of being more bewildered and confused than at any other period of modern history, Prof. Soward declared this was borne out by appointment of three foreign secretaries within a year. He said it would be about two years before Germany had built up a powerful war machine, and in that time Germany would have its last chance to show by co-operation and decision that it was adequate to save the world from brutality.

He thought it sinister that a questionnaire addressed by Great Britain to Germany on her policies had remained unanswered, more so because of the increasing confidence of Germany in her own power. Hitler, he said, considered Danzig, Austria and the question of colonies bleeding wounds of German defeat. In his opinion, it would be quite possible for democracy to co-ordinate and apply force against the threat of dictatorship.

IMPORTANT DATES
Important European dates listed by Prof. Soward were: 1900 to 1910, nations preparing for war; 1911 to 1920, nations at war; 1920 to 1929, nations striving to build up the fabric of peace; 1930 to 1931, treaties broken; January, 1933, Adolf Hitler's rise to power by treachery and intrigue; October, 1933, Hitler's withdrawal from the Disarmament Conference; July, 1934, the murder of the Austrian Chancellor by Nazis; March, 1935, the request of Britain and France to guarantee Russia and Austria against treaty breaches, and announcement of armament plans by Great Britain; May, 1935, the signing of a mutual assistance pact between France and Russia; and the Italian invasion of Ethiopia, and March, 1936, re-entry of German forces into the Rhineland and the French economic crisis leading to the rise of Socialism.

Canoe Marathon Across Strait Is Set for Sept. 7

EAGERLY awaited by sportsmen here and on the Mainland, the date of the annual Victoria-Port Angeles canoe race was announced yesterday as Labor Day, September 7, the canoes leaving this city at 10:30 a.m. and scheduled to arrive at the Salmon Club clubhouse, Seattle, at the conclusion of the Port Angeles salmon derby and in time for the presentation of prizes. The event is being sponsored by the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Port Angeles Chamber of Commerce. Hon. Eric W. Hamber, Lieutenant-Governor, and Victor E. Meyers, Lieutenant-Governor of Washington State, have been asked to act as commodore and vice-commodore, respectively, of the gruelling contest.

Teaching of Music to Be Considered

Continuance of musical education in the public schools will be discussed at tonight's meeting of the city school board, a situation having arisen between the city and the Provincial Department of Education that has to some extent upset the present arrangements.

Two new appointments to the staff are expected to be made, while changes in the janitorial staff also will be considered.

PRODUCERS FAVORABLE

It was considered likely that judgment on this act would be among those appealed to the Privy Council as producers in many parts of the country had viewed with favor schemes conducted under it.

The Employment Insurance Act was not placed in operation and there was no indication that the present Government favored application of its principles.

The three acts relating to working hours, minimum wages and the weekly day of rest were implementations of conventions of the International Labor Office which Canada signed. The Bennett Government argued they would be constitutional on the ground the Dominion had the right to implement treaties.

It was considered possible the opinion that the Trade and Industry and Commission Act was only partly valid would be appealed as the commission, identical in personnel with the tariff board, is now preparing to hear complaints of price-setting and unfair competition against four western meat-packing companies.

Section 488A of the Criminal Code, found valid, resulted from the prior spreads commission probe and was designed to correct abuses in business and eliminate unfair competition in wholesale and retail trade.

The Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act established machinery for effecting compromise settlements of farmers' debts without resort to bankruptcy proceedings.

Mrs. Arlen and Small Son Visit Victoria on Way to Hollywood for a Rest

Richard "Dick" Arlen, popular Hollywood movie star, is enjoying his work at Revelstoke, where a Gaumont-British company is filming "The Great Barrier," taken from Alan Sullivan's book, "Track of Destiny." Mrs. Arlen said at the Empress Hotel last night, before she sailed on the S. S. F. Alexander for the South.

She is taking her three-year-old son, Richard Jr., home for a rest after being away four months, while Mr. Arlen was working in studios in England. Mrs. Arlen plans to join her husband again in a month's time, traveling the distance by airplane.

Mrs. Arlen, too, enjoys the outdoor life, and yesterday explained she was only leaving it in the interests of her small son.

WITH HAROLD LLOYD

Mrs. Arlen, known on the screen as Jobyna Ballson, co-starred with Harold Lloyd several years ago.

She was greatly interested in the beauty and variety of R. P. Butchart's gardens, which she visited yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Arlen, she said, intends to compete in a $5,000 open golf tournament being held July 23, 24 and 25 in connection with the Vancouver golden jubilee celebrations, which will draw Lawson Little, Hyng Crosby, and other notables in many fields, besides golf.

Minute Interviews

To be a Shriner is to be a traveler, according to Thomas Weir, Benjamin McPhie and John M. Phillips, of Nampa, Idaho, who arrived at the Douglas Hotel with their wives yesterday to enjoy a visit in Victoria before attending a convention in Seattle next week. Victoria is to their liking, they said yesterday, and expressed the hope they could see many of the city's attractions during their stay here.

Victoria last week lost a prominent citizen of the world as a city resident, when C. R. Rennie, London, one-time administrator of Nigeria, West Africa, found that drinking here had to be done in privacy and with much secrecy. Mr. Rennie recently spent some time in the Orient. He was surprised to find first-class roads in Java, which were built with cheap and plentiful labor.

The legitimate stage is gone forever in all but the large theatres, David Clyde, Hollywood, former producer of stage plays in Vancouver and Prairie cities and now a film actor, stated recently at the Dominion Hotel, where he is staying with other members of the Central Films Limited, who are now producing "Vengeance of the Forest." Mr. Clyde is brother of Andy Clyde, famous comedian of the screen. His wife is Gaby Fay, rising new Hollywood star.

Going from Vancouver to Hollywood eighteen months ago, he made a hit with a recruited theatrical company and straightway went into pictures. His wife did not enjoy the same immediate success, but her turn came after eleven months when she "stole" a show in which she had a small part. Movie contracts were shored at her from all studios, and now she is on her way to stardom. Mr. Clyde explained, with a broad smile.

REGIONAL FACTS

If sanctions had been perpetuated, if they had been increased to imply military action against Italy, it is Great Britain that would have had to bear the onus. It would have been the British Fleet in the Mediterranean that would have been expected to take action against Italy. That is exactly the position which the Labor Party in Great Britain has failed to visualize, namely, that the first nation to be precipitated into war against Italy would have been their own country. That party has been the chief exponent of disarmament. Yet when a condition, and not a theory is confronted, it wants, for purely party reasons, to see Great Britain accept all the responsibility. The Labor Party is contradictory in its outlook. It wants disarmament, and at the same time war.

Sanctions are to be abandoned, and rightly so. The next step is reorganization of the League of Nations. The most devoted adherents of the League want to see the obligations of the Government made more automatic. They are willing to risk war, no matter who is involved. There is another viewpoint which believes that the League should be underpinned by a series of regional pacts. That is the attitude of France. The likelihood is that it will be the attitude of Great Britain in the immediate future. There is a third viewpoint which believes that all the teeth should be extracted from the Covenant of the League and that each nation should decide its own policy towards an aggressor.

The decision that will be reached affecting the future of the League of Nations is that which will be agreed upon by Great Britain and France in union. There is widespread recognition that the League has failed and that its Covenant needs revision. The attitude of the League in the matter of Ethiopia was halting and ineffective. It was the same in the case of Manchukuo. That situation cannot continue, unless it is proposed that the League should expire by a process of innocuous desuetude. The fact of the matter is that the League has been operating in a no man's land. It has been divorced from realities. It is idealistic and not practical. The whole basis has to be reformed, and it has to reconstitute itself as a court of appeal, not an agency to prevent war. That would imply that the process of regional pacts would afford the best solution of the problem of peace. Where those are broken the League could step in as an intermediary. Its function would then be a court of appeal, and that is about all it can ever be with the state of popular opinion in various countries what it is.

THE VIMY PILGRIMAGE

Canada cannot send too notable a representation to the Vimy Ridge unveiling. There will be some 6,000 of the country's Veterans of the Great War to meet His Majesty, but it is as well, too, that such representative figures as Sir Robert Borden and Sir George Perley should be among the official representation. This, too, will include Mr. Ian Mackenzie, the Minister of National Defence, and Mr. C. G. Power, the Minister of Pensions, as well as Senator Rodolphe Lemieux, Sir Eugene Fleet, Surgeon-General and Deputy Minister of National Defence, and Lieutenant-General Sir R. E. W. Turner, who was commander of the Second Canadian Division. Two of the chief guests during the ceremony will be Lady Byng and Lady Currie.

The Vimy Ridge Memorial has been erected at the expense of the Canadian Government, and it bids fair to be one of the most noteworthy memorials of the Great War, perhaps on a par with the Menin Gate. It is to commemorate those who died in the taking of Vimy Ridge, and incidentally to immortalize all those who fell in the war from this country. The Vimy engagement was one of the first, if not the first, in which the Canadians gained individual credit in the Great War. They fought as a unit there. They gained one of the greatest successes, and by that success initiated the Battle of Arras, which was one of the great battles of the war. Vimy's success occurred on April 9, 1917, when the famous ridge was captured from the Germans and upwards of 10,000 prisoners taken. A real blow was dealt against German resistance, and the Canadian Army Corps covered itself with glory.

It is fitting, therefore, that some thousands of Canadians should make the pilgrimage to Vimy to witness the unveiling by His Majesty. It is an exalting and solemn mission, and it represents the Dominion's tribute of remembrance to those who fell in the Great War and gave their lives in the cause of freedom.

RELIEF CAMPS CLOSED

In the pother of publicity about the closing of relief camps throughout the Dominion, no mention is made of the number of men who have availed themselves of deferred maintenance work on the railways. There is an intimation that 9,000 men have been transferred to such work, or have been placed on farms. For party political purposes there has been a good deal of criticism of relief camps. It was but logical that such methods of handling the unemployed should lead itself to agitation, especially because the conception was fostered that the men concerned were held under military supervision. There is no doubt, however, that the camps served a useful purpose. They afforded shelter and food to thousands of homeless men. They afforded a resting place until such men could obtain jobs. They meant small cash payments and temporary conveniences, and they were a stop-gap in the problem of unemployment.

It is true that the camps afforded a rallying ground for preachers of disorder. That was their disability, and because of this it is as well that they should disappear. They were the breeding grounds of agitation, and they led to the abortive march to Ottawa, which culminated in the Regina riots. It was those riots, more than anything else, which has led to closing the camps. Now there is the possibility that thousands of men will be absorbed in railway work and farm employment. It will be possible now to know just how much the men who have been in the relief camps want to be employed gainfully. That will determine in some measure how acute the problem of unemployment is, and to what extent it is a case of those who do not want to be employed, and prefer to draw a dole or be dependent in some other way on the State.

RECKLESS DRIVING

Mr. A. C. Emmett, who is secretary of the Manitoba Motor League, makes the suggestion that if motorists would make it their duty to report flagrant cases of reckless driving, measures could be taken whereby the evil could be restrained. It is not an easy matter to expect that users of the road will report on those who show signs of violating traffic rules, and yet it is a duty which is owed to the traveling public. Such reports would induce authorities to take definite action; it might induce such regulations as would be efficacious in preventing accidents; it could have the effect of showing what are the reasons for accidents.

More than anything else, publicity could have the effect of reducing accidents on the roads. It is by a public consciousness of what are the causes of fatalities and other accidents that an appreciation is aroused of why such occur. Governments have been strangely lax in their estimation of the safety of the highways. The personal of Governments, themselves motorists, are prone to leave well enough alone. They are the makers of highways and they are loathe to create the impression that such highways are not safe. It is an anomalous situation. The fact is, however, that the highways of British Columbia are not safe, and much remains to be done to reduce fatalities in this Province. The Provincial Government has a definite responsibility which cannot be evaded.

THE SPHINX

Who fashioned you? Who carved your face
 From out the living rock—
 Three thousand years ago?—Since when You've weathered Time and Shock!
 A monarch reigning lone, aloof;
 Unmoved by joy or moan,
 While generations come and go
 Remembered not nor known.

Whose fingers moulded thee? Thy lips
 Their voice never shall break,
 But if ye could Man's story tell
 Even stony heart must ache:
 What secret couldst of passing years
 Reveal to make him quake?

What hast thou seen below the stars
 Beneath the brazen sun?
 What pomp and splendour, what glory vain,
 That battles lost or won?
 Or hast thou watched Man's Babel towers
 His puny deeds undone?

To dust the fingers that once shaped
 Thy mammoth frame of stone
 To dust and ashes long ago
 The cunning brain and bone:
 Ye do but prove that Truth will live
 When Man himself has gone:
 That what we do lives after us,
 "Our works do follow on."

"NOT ENOUGH"

It is reported in semi-official quarters here that the lifting of Sanctions will not be enough to allow Italy again to collaborate in European affairs. It is hinted that only a reversal of the League verdict that Italy was the aggressor in Abyssinia would really meet the case. Rome telegram to a daily paper:

Let us be realistic and face the facts.
 For peace, at any price, is more than pacts.
 The house is broke; the burglar keeps the crust;
 Why not be wise, and say he didn't do it?
 It may be awkward to condone a crime,
 But not if it is lawful all the time.
 If humble pie be what the nations wish,
 Let them have plenty, let them lick the dish.
 Sinking "The meek Italian" let him home
 To drive the Abyssinian brute from Rome.
 Maybe that mustard on the mountain tops
 Was loosed by Englishmen disguised as Wops.

VICTORIA XI GAINS DRAW

Reg Wenman Scores First Century of Cricket Week in Vancouver

VANCOUVER, July 7.—Reg Wenman, rangy Victoria batsman, today registered the first century of the British Columbia cricket championship week when the Islanders tied with the Wednesday League team of Vancouver.

Behind the powerful batting of Wenman, the Victorians piled up 262 for five wickets, declared against 132 for eight wickets by the Vancouver eleven.

Vancouver Burdards defeated Vernon, 182 for five wickets declared to 75, and Vancouver Oils were downed by Vancouver Juniors, 60 to 50, in the other two league fixtures.

Wenman hit the Wednesday League's bowling all over the lot in batting right through Victoria's short innings and piling up 145 runs.

He was at bat for two hours and three-quarters and hit one six and fourteen fours. He did not give a chance until he had passed the century, and then only two difficult catches in the long field. Darcus backed him up effectively in making 55. Lager, who was put on late in the innings, took two wickets for ten runs. Arthur Smith played a fine innings of 57 to save his side from defeat. Darcus came out with an analysis of 3 for 4. Pile took 2 wickets for 20, and Wenman 2 for 31.

Blanks San Diego to Keep First Berth in Pacific Coast Flag Race

OAKLAND, July 7.—Aided by timely hitting and excellent seam work in the pinches, Ken Douglas southpawed Oakland to a 2-to-0 win over San Diego today.

It was the twenty-first consecutive inning of shutout ball played by the Oaks against rivals.

Jimmy Hitchcock drove in both runs, his double in the fifth scoring Boland and his single in the seventh sending Loggins home. Meanwhile, Douglas held the Padres to five hits.

New Net Tournery Will Be Staged In the Province
VANCOUVER, July 7.—A new tournament, the British Columbia closed tennis championships, will be inaugurated tonight by tennis officials. The new tourney will be held here July 13 to 18, inclusive.

Officials said entry forms had been sent to all clubs throughout the province which are affiliated with the British Columbia Lawn Tennis Association and hoped that net stars from all parts of the province would attend.

The names of Bud Hocking and Tom Campbell, prominent Victoria net experts, were especially mentioned as two of the Island contingent expected to compete.

KAY STAPLES IN DOUBLE TRIUMPH

Up-Island Tennis Stars Captures Two Junior Tennis Championships at Meet Here

Kay Staples, promising young Duncan netter, scored a double triumph yesterday at the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club courts in the final of the Victoria Centre Junior tennis championships.

The up-island star stroked her way to victory over Diana Stoker in the girls' singles crown, while with Suzanne Hadwen to capture the girls' doubles crown.

Tony Staples, Duncan, and brother of the girls' single champion, lifted the junior singles crown, while the boys' singles title was won by H. E. Bennett.

The champions will be given an opportunity to compete in the P.N.W. championships to be held at Seattle shortly.

NORTH SHORE IN BONLA TRIUMPH
VANCOUVER, July 7.—North Shore Indians advanced another two runs up the Inter-City Box Lacrosse League ladder tonight, by beating through a disgruntled New Westminster Adanac squad for a 15-8 victory. The win put the Redskins within four points of the league-leading Ladang Farmers.

Outside of a fierce attack in the second quarter which netted them five goals, the New Westminster squad were held to a lone tally in every other quarter.

The Indians rode a one-goal lead at half-time, and while their powerful defence held the Adanacs back they rattled in eight goals in the final two quarters to clinch the victory.

Louie Louis led the Indian attack with three goals, while Jim Douglas took Adanac scoring honors with three corners.

City and District

Band Concert—Britannia Branch, Canadian Legion Band, will give a concert in Beacon Hill Park at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Miss Sheila Conway will be the soloist.

In Convalescing—Hon. H. G. Perry, Speaker in the Eighteenth Legislature, is convalescing successfully in Vancouver after a major operation, friends in Victoria were advised yesterday.

Health Report—The city's health department yesterday announced that there was now free of spinal meningitis cases, with the release of the last patient from the Isolation Hospital.

Annual Picnic—The annual picnic of Britannia Branch, Canadian Legion, will be held on Saturday afternoon at Willows Beach. D. G. Holmes is in charge of all arrangements.

Is Vice-President—The vice-president of the British Columbia Music Teachers' Federation, elected at the annual meeting of the Council of Nine held here on Monday, is Reginald Cox, of Victoria.

Wants Grant—The city of Quebec is seeking a special grant from the Provincial Government much in the same manner as is Victoria, which asks that the Government make a grant in lieu of taxes on exempted property.

Writer Is Coming—V. C. Hellner, New York magazine writer and contributor to Field and Stream sportsman's magazine, is expected here August 14. On the advice of Corey Ford and Alastair MacBain, well-known feature writers, Mr. Hellner will angle for big Island fish.

Hold Picnic Today—The annual picnic of St. John's Anglican Church Sunday school will be held today at Elk Lake. Buses will leave the Sunday school, Quadra and Mason Streets, at 1:30 p.m. Tea, sugar and milk will be provided for the parents, and supper for the children and young people.

Barbers' Rates—J. A. Green, secretary of the Victoria Barbers' Union, yesterday said that no increase of the rate in the cost of haircuts in Vancouver, and that whatever Victoria did would be independent of Vancouver. Union shops here were still cutting hair at 35 cents a head, he said.

Inter-Club Meeting—Members of Victoria Kiwanis Club are making plans for an inter-club meeting with Port Angeles Kiwanians on July 15. They expect to leave here on the ferry at 11:30 o'clock in the morning. They will hold a luncheon and golf tournament in the American city.

Eagles Meet Tonight—Victoria Aerie No. 12, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Eagles' Hall, Government Street. Following a business session, a dance will be conducted, to which all Eagles and their ladies are invited. Refreshments will be served.

Traffic Accident—John Armstrong, Clifton Apartments, was injured at 11:30 o'clock last night, when knocked down by an automobile at the corner of Broad and View Streets. The automobile, police said, was driven by D. L. McMartin. The injured man was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital by Mr. McMartin.

Leaving Game Board—Retirement of Gerald Bolton, an inspector of the British Columbia Game Branch, was announced yesterday by Attorney-General Sloan. At the same time it was announced that Dr. C. McC. Motley, of the marine biological station at Nanaimo, had been named in an advisory capacity to the Government on game fish culture.

District Convention—William Harold M. Diggon and Rowan W. MacKenzie were appointed delegates to the Pacific Northwest Kiwanis district convention during a meeting at the Empress Hotel yesterday. The convocation will be held from August 9 to 11 at Seattle. Dr. A. M. Menzies and Arthur Dowell were selected alternate delegates.

Many Applications—Yesterday morning, in Supreme Court Chambers, Mr. Justice Murphy heard applications, which were very numerous, especially in probates and letters of administration. Mr. Justice H. B. Robertson, who is on a visit outside the province, will be returning shortly and will take chambers in the various centres during the long vacation.

To Meet Government—Deadlocked over cannery prices for tomatoes in the Interior, a delegation of growers and cannery men from Vernon will submit their case to Hon. K. C. Macdonald at 4 p.m. on Thursday. It was learned yesterday at the Legislative Buildings. Government minimum wage regulations, a factor in the issue, will be discussed with Hon. G. S. Pearson, it was said.

Island Roads Fair—The weekly highway report of the British Columbia Works Department yesterday said Island thoroughfares were in good condition, save for small sections at Cowichan Bay and at other points, where reconstruction was under way. Flood damage on Mainland roads is being steadily repaired, with most highways back into use at the present time. On the Cariboo highway at Hume Creek, some interruption of traffic is still noted.

Memorial Service—A Vimy memorial service, patterned after the one to be used in dedication of the huge monument to Canada's fallen, will be arranged by Britannia Branch, Canadian Legion, in Beacon Hill Park on July 26. Special invitations will be issued to ex-service men, war widows and relatives.

TAX POSITION IS FAVORABLE

Mayor Leeming Compares Victoria's Per Capita Burden With Other Centres

"Victoria stands in a very favorable condition compared with other Western cities in respect to taxation," Mayor David Leeming stated yesterday, after examining the per capita taxation of other cities in the West having a population of 40,000 or more.

The per capita tax in Victoria last year was $42.33, the mayor announced, as compared with $44.89 in Vancouver; $45.62 in Calgary; $45.86 in Edmonton; $45.60 in Regina; $43.94 in Saskatoon and $42.08 in Winnipeg.

Reviewing tax collection during the past few years, the mayor pointed out that there was a steady increase in the percentage of collections, and that although the rate had been raised here this year, the city's taxes were still much lower than 1922, which was the lowest point of the depression.

Depending on the success of the wheat crop now growing in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, it is clear from the letters now reaching the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau that this coming Fall will see a very marked increase in the number of people coming to reside in Victoria from the Prairie Provinces.

Many of these correspondents have, apparently, already arranged to sell their farms, subject to a bumper harvest. Others are retiring from business or will be going on pension from the Government or railways.

Although the doctors' convention has—only just finished—already persons are writing to the publicity bureau here stating they were asking for information with a view to taking up their residence in Victoria, as the city had been recommended to them by their local physicians.

Following discussion on the need of an airport for the city, several members felt that other ex-service men's organizations should join with Britannia Branch in urging action by the Federal Government. The question of ways and means will be dealt with at the next meeting.

SUCCESSFUL WHEAT CROP WILL BRING RESIDENTS TO CITY
The question of members of the branch receiving considerable aid and then asking for transfers to another unit was referred to the district council for action.

Guests at Garden Party Fascinated With "Clovelly"

Mrs. C. T. Beard Opens Fete of Mary Croft Esquimalt Chapter, I.O.D.E., With Compliments—Mrs. G. P. Clarke Is Gracious Hostess

DELIGHTFUL weather, enchanting surroundings and a gracious hostess made the Mary Croft Esquimalt Chapter, I.O.D.E., garden fete yesterday at "Clovelly," the home of Lady Barnard, on Sea Terrace, an outstanding affair and a truly enjoyable day.

Mrs. G. Puleston Clarke, wearing a dainty corsage bouquet of sweet peas on her flowered chiffon frock, acted as hostess in the absence of Lady Barnard, and as regent of the chapter was the general convener, this being her first big undertaking since taking over the regency. During the day she welcomed over 200 guests, and the gratifying sum of $135 was realized.

In her charming way, Mrs. C. T. Beard opened the fete at 3 o'clock and expressed her pleasure in having the opportunity of meeting the members and their friends and the honor in being invited to preside at the opening. As she was a member of the Laurentian Chapter at Ottawa, Mrs. Beard said she felt she was no stranger to the organization and the wonderful work of the order. She asked the guests to give generously and support the child welfare work of the chapter, which along with secondary education, is the chapter's principal work. Mrs. Beard received a lovely corsage bouquet of flowers presented to her by little Miss Elaine Hurst.

REGENT SPEAKS
Mrs. Clarke, in introducing Mrs. Beard, said: "We are very pleased to welcome Mrs. Beard, who is no stranger to Esquimalt, although she hasn't been here in recent years. One of our chapter is 'United Service,' and it is very appropriate to have a member of our senior service should honor us by her presence today, and I want her to realize how much we appreciate it."

Mrs. Clarke, on behalf of the honorary regent, Lady Barnard, who was unable to attend, extended a warm welcome to the visitors. In speaking of Lady Barnard's kindness, Mrs. Clarke said: "We are greatly indebted to Lady Barnard for lending these beautiful gardens, and we hope you will take advantage of her generosity and spend a very happy afternoon."

Mrs. R. B. McKie, who presented with a corsage bouquet of flowers by Master John Clarke, who twice gave her the name "Clovelly."

BEAUTIFUL GARDENS
The grounds were indeed beautiful and were greatly admired, the delphiniums and roses attracting much attention. The ever-favorite display of potted geraniums was the delight of everyone. Dotted around the grounds were the various stalls, and all did a thriving business.

Mrs. A. A. Warder, Mrs. G. Pocock and Mrs. R. Osborne were at the home-cooking table, which was sold out before the day ended, as also was the candy stall at which Mrs. Christine presided, assisted by three of her Brownies from the Esquimalt pack. A novelty table was supervised by Mrs. Arthur Poyntz, who was assisted by Miss P. Mulcahy. Touch and take was a great favorite with the children and was managed by Mrs. J. Quinn. At the gate were Mrs. Cyril Cross, Mrs. A. Youngman and Mrs. F. Ricketts.

TEA ENJOYED

In the summer house large bowls filled with jackpaws, delphiniums and marigolds, and bowls of regal lilies were arranged and here tea was served with Mrs. G. Bishop, Mrs. T. W. Alan and Mrs. J. T. Jones in charge. At the head table sat Mrs. L. A. George, Mrs. William Ellis, Mrs. Kylie Symons, Mrs. R. B. McKie, Mrs. C. T. Beard, Mrs. P. R. Wright, Mrs. H. R. Hurst and Mrs. Clarke, who presided at the tea and coffee urus. The table was centred with a graceful bowl of brightly-colored Iceland poppies. Later Brigadier and Mrs. D. J. MacDonald joined the party.

In the tearoom and outside among the trees fortunes were told by Mrs. Mossop, Mrs. Carter and Mrs. W. R. Brown. Contests were in charge of Mrs. H. O. Austin, Mrs. P. R. Wright, Miss Marcia Prior and Miss Campbell. The cake was won by Mrs. Smith, and the candles were awarded to Mrs. Cyril Cross.

Clubs-Societies

Metropolitan Auxiliary

The last meeting of the Metropolitan Evening Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Muncy, 3018 Blackwood Street, with twenty-two members present. Miss May Lewis and Miss Muriel Wright were in charge of the evening programme which opened with a helpful devotional period. An inspiring talk by Miss Nellie Snyder was based on the theme, "Fellowship." A duet, "Teach Me to Pray," was sung by Miss B. Murgatroyd and Miss M. Muncy. It was decided to have a picnic in July at Goldstream and arrangements were made to meet at the Metropolitan Church at 3:15 p.m. tomorrow for this occasion. In September it has been arranged to hold the meeting at the Oriental Hotel, 712 Commercial Street, on which occasion Miss Laurie, in charge of the Home, will address the society. The missionary study was conducted by Mrs. May Lewis and Miss Muriel Wright, the latter subject being "Progress in the New Africa Along Educational Lines." Miss Lewis' subject was "Progress in the New Africa Along the Lines of Agriculture and Industry." Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Daughters of St. George
The Daughters of St. George, Lodge No. 83, will hold a garden fete at the home of Mrs. J. Lomas, 3217 Dublin Road, tomorrow. The worthy district deputy will open the fete at 2:30 p.m. Members are asked to bring their donations early or leave them with Mrs. Adams, 300 E. Hill, Broad Street, today. Persons wishing to attend are advised to take the Quadra Jitney to Tolmie Avenue.

Weddings

HOLMAN-PLATT
Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Platt, 942 E. J. Street, announce the marriage of their youngest daughter, Olive, to Mr. Howard Holman, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Holman, 1156 North Park Street. The wedding took place recently.

BLAKE-ROBSON
A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Rev. George Pringle, Vancouver, on July 4, when Marjorie Robson, widow of the late Major J. W. Robson, O.B.E. became the bride of Mr. James H. Blake, Victoria, mechanical supervisor of the British Columbia Forest Service. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Cy Young of Vancouver. A coffee service was presented to Mr. Blake by his associates in the service.

Psychologist Teaches Cult Of "Keep Fit"

Mrs. Margaret Potts, who is visiting in Victoria for July and August, has recently returned from London, England, where she is lecturer and consulting psychologist for the Practical Psychology Club of London, which is affiliated with the British Union of Practical Psychologists. Mrs. Potts visited many centres, lecturing on "Youth and Vitality" to the "Keep Fit" Clubs and Health and Beauty Physical Culture groups in England.

Mrs. Potts says this health system of building a body beautiful and weighing what you wish to weigh is sweeping Europe and is manifesting in England among its womanhood as a "Keep Fit" movement. Its slogan is on everyone's lips: 80,000 British girls and women belong to physical culture classes, business and society girls and women, alike, have their classes.

ENTERS DAILY LIFE

She says that psychology is entering more and more into the daily life of thousands, that during the past few months the larger stores and business firms have been engaging a practical psychologist as a regular member of the staff, whose duty it is to see that personal harmonious relationships exist between the various employees of all grades. One of the largest stores has an expert who lectures to the staff on business psychology and has kept her classes for its thousands of employees. Besides making them more fit physically it makes them more alert and efficient and creates a joyous enthusiasm which reacts on sales and customers alike. Vocational expert psychologists are on the staff of every large city school to advise the graduating students regarding their life work.

During her work in London, Mrs. Potts met, also, personally, such world-famous women as Dr. Marie Stopes, Lady Astor, Dr. Maude Roydon, Miss Isabel MacDonald, about whom she will speak at a date to be announced later.

ENGAGEMENTS

MYRTLE-JENNINGS

The engagement is announced between John Hepburn Myrtle, only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Myrtle, of Harpenden, Hertfordshire, England, and Betty Timington Jennings, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald H. Jennings, 1328 Bond Street, Victoria.

Qualicum Beach

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harvey and three children, of Powell River, were recent visitors to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Gidding.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Dick and family, of Edmonton, are again in residence at the White House.

Miss Jessie Hodgson, R.N., who has been at Smith's taking duties at the hospital for the past year, moved to Vancouver and was met by her father, and will spend her vacation at home here.

Rev. J. A. "Pete" BA, left on Monday to attend the Pacific Coast Theological Conference, which will be held in the First Baptist Church, Vancouver, for three days.

Mrs. G. Stewart of Vancouver, who has been the guest of her brother, Mr. H. Stewart for the last ten days, left for home on Tuesday.

U. B. C. Graduates Are Married at St. Mary's

Miss Margaret Little Becomes Bride of Mr. Andrew Grote Stirling, B.A.Sc., Amid Pretty Setting—Reception at Oakbay Beach Hotel

A marriage of interest in Victoria and on the Mainland was solemnized in St. Mary's Church last evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. Canon Nunn officiating, when the principals were Miss Margaret Little, M.A., elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Little, 2360 Cookman Street, Oak Bay, and Mr. Andrew Grote Stirling, B.A.Sc., elder son of Hon. Grote Stirling, M.P. for Yale, and of the late Mrs. Stirling, of Kelowna. Mr. Dudley Wickett presided at the organ.

Baskets of mixed-summer flowers lined the choir stalls, and the guest pews were marked with clusters of flowers tied with white tulle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked very attractive in her gown of ivory satin, fashioned with a short train and long lace sleeves. Her veil was arranged with a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas, carnations and rosebuds. Miss Mollie Little was her sister's only attendant, in a charming frock of flowered nylon and a large white hat and she carried a bouquet of larkspur and delphiniums. Mr. David Brock was best man, and Messrs. David and "Mick" Bird ushered the guests to their pews.

RECEPTION HELD

About sixty guests were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Little after the ceremony, in the private dining-room at the Oakbay Beach Hotel, where a delightful arrangement of flowers made an effective setting. Large double pink poppies and syringas adorned the mantelpiece, and the supper table was centred with a huge bowl and smaller vases of spiraea and roses illuminated by tall cream tapers in silver holders. The wedding cake, on a small round table, was cut by the bride. For the occasion, Mrs. Little was gowned in grey and wore a corsage spray of pink carnations. After their honeymoon, Mr. and

Canadians to Be Presented At Reception

LONDON, July 7 (P).—Eleven Canadians will be presented at the afternoon reception to be given by the King at Buckingham Palace on July 21 and July 22.

They are as follows: Mrs. Reginald and Miss Daphne Arkell, of Vancouver; Miss Rose Anne Bullen and Miss Dorothea and Miss Helen Campbell, of Toronto; Mrs. Guy Stirling and Miss Ruth Taylor, of Kingston, Ont.; Miss Maxine Munroe, of Regina; Mrs. Karl McCullagh, of Camp Borden, Ont.; and Miss Jocelyn Plummer, of York Mills, Ont.

These two afternoon receptions take the place of the royal courts, cancelled on account of the death of King George. They are intended as an opportunity for women to be presented to the King, who would ordinarily have been presented at the courts.

COLORED GOWNS

Women will be able to wear colored gowns, as the period of full court mourning ends July 20. It is understood that the debutantes will pass before the King, making their bows, as at the court.

The King, with Queen Mary and other members of the family in a royal family circle around him, probably will occupy a gilt armchair under the Delhi Durbar canopy of scarlet and gold, supported by four posts of solid silver, at the end of the main lawn of the palace.

GIVES TALK ON SCOTLAND TODAY

Rev. J. H. Garden, of Brandon, Lectures to Burns Club in C. of C. Rooms Here

Members of Victoria Burns Club listened with interest to the travel lecture on "Bonnie Scotland in Song and Story," given by Rev. John H. Garden, of Brandon, at the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium here last night. The lecture was in aid of Sooke Presbyterian Church.

The lecture was illustrated with a large number of colored slides, and Mr. Garden gave a graphic story of cottage and castle, highlands and lowlands, and other interesting and historic spots which abound in Scotland. His lecture was interspersed with many humorous stories of the Scottish people, with bits of history and colorful stories of romance.

Mr. Garden, who was born and educated in Scotland, recently visited his native land. His descriptions of the various places were exceedingly interesting and his references to historic occasions were complete stories in themselves.

During the showing of slides of Afton, W. C. Pife sang "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton," and Miss Isabel Crawford sang "Loch Lomond." Miss Elsie Friend played the accompaniment. W. B. Grant, president of Burns Club, presided and introduced Mr. Garden. Pipe-Major Donald Cameron, who played pipe selections at the commencement and at the close of the lecture.

VIOLENT STORM CAUSES DAMAGE

DUNFERMLINE, Sask., July 7 (P).—An unidentified passenger received several cuts on a passenger train near here tonight. Lightning struck a door on the train and he was hit by flying glass. After receiving medical attention he proceeded on his way.

The injury was the only one reported, following a storm of hurricane velocity which swept across Central Saskatchewan. Roofs were torn off buildings, planks carried a quarter of a mile, and shop fronts

Little Stories for Bedtime

Danny and Nanny Meadow Mouse Make Plans—By THORNTON W. BURGESS

When Reddy Fox had grown tired of prowling and sniffing around the old brush pile under which Danny Meadow Mouse had managed to run just in time to escape furnishing Reddy with a dinner, and had gone away, Danny came out to look for little Miss Nanny Meadow Mouse. He met her hurrying up the little path that led to the old brush pile, and Danny felt that just to see the look of gladness in her eyes when she saw him was worth all he had been through, even the skinned tail, the torn trousers, and all his smarting wounds.

"Oh, Danny, he didn't catch you! I'm so glad! so glad!" cried little Miss Nanny happily.

"Of course he didn't. It will take someone a whole lot smarter than Reddy Fox to catch me," boasted Danny.

"How brave you are! You are the bravest Meadow Mouse in all the Great World!" said little Miss Nanny with a happy sigh.

"Pooh! That was nothing," replied Danny, trying very hard to look as if he really thought it was nothing when all the time he was very proud of what he had done, as he really had a right to be.

It was just then that little Miss Nanny discovered for the first time his torn trousers and skinned tail.

"Oh, Danny," she cried, and her voice was filled with pity, "you are hurt!"

"It's nothing much," mumbled Danny, trying to hide his skinned tail. You know, that little short, stubby tail has always been a matter of mortification of Danny. All his life he has wished for a long, handsome tail like that of his cousin, Whitefoot the Wood Mouse. And now the little tail he did have was a sad-looking affair, with half the skin gone where the claws of Reddy Fox had torn in when he had so nearly caught Danny. But little Miss Nanny was all pity. She made Danny lie down while she washed and dressed his wounds, and very careful and tender was little Miss Nanny as she worked over the poor skinned little tail. Danny thought that just to have her fussing over him was worth all that he had been through.

When he had been made as comfortable as possible they sat down side by side to plan what they should do and where they should make their new home, for they knew now that they could never be happy again without each other.

"It is very nice here," said little Miss Nanny, who somehow couldn't bear to think of leaving her old home.

"But it isn't safe any more," said Danny, in a very decided way. "Reddy Fox will come hunting here every day now that he has found us here. I think it will be safer over where I live, because I have ever so many hiding places there."

"But Reddy Fox will hunt there just as he always has," protested Nanny. "I don't see as it would be a bit safer there than here."

Danny looked thoughtful. "That is very true," said he. "I tell you what. Let's look for a new place to live, a place where no Meadow Mouse has lived before, and where Reddy will not think to look."

"The very thing!" cried Nanny, clapping her hands happily. "We'll go home hunting just as soon as you feel able."

"I feel able right this minute," declared Danny, hopping to his feet. "Let's start right away!"

No Interference With Noon Gun and Its Gunner At Ottawa

OTTAWA, July 7.—Parliament was thrifty this year, but the Government decided kindly with one old custom. Hidden away among the vast sums passed this session was $150 a year for the man who fires the noon-day gun.

Visitors to the capital touring the building at noon and hearing the boom of the 12 o'clock cannon might imagine a gun crew drawn up to a modern howitzer. Instead, if they walk to a corner of Major Hill Park they find a great bronze cannon, originally cast in Woolwich, Arsenal for the Crimean War.

COMES ON BICYCLE
It is fired by a slight, white-haired man who arrives on a bicycle with shoulders slightly bowed as if under a weight. Most of his life he has been a postman.

A quarter-century and more has elapsed since Ernest Snowden first plodded through snow, sleet or blazing sun to charge and fire the muzzle-loading cannon. He has only three holidays a year, Thanksgiving, Christmas and Good Friday. On Sundays, the gun is fired at 10 o'clock in the morning, and only once has it failed to announce noon on a weekday. Then something broke.

Since it first boomed forth from its station by the House of Parliament, April 1, 1869, three men have filled the office of keeper of the noon-day gun. In 1916, after the Parliament House fire, the gun was moved to its present position on Nepean Point facing the building across the outlet of the Rideau Canal, because it shook the ground and hampered building.

FOR DEPARTMENTAL DUTY
The explanation of Ottawa's noon-day gun as set forth in the original manifesto reads in part: "The purpose for which this system was established was to have uniformity of time for dispatching mails from several departmental offices and for regulating time generally throughout the Government services at Ottawa."

This old record tells how Government clocks used to be corrected by a firm which sent a man around weekly to adjust the hands of the various clocks. This did not prove satisfactory and was abandoned in favor of a time-ball system.

From the Montreal Observatory time was sent by telegraph wire, causing the dropping of a heavy iron ball in Ottawa simultaneous with the firing of the cannon. Two British artillerymen were in charge. Ernest Snowden assumed charge early in the 1900's.

CACHE NEARLY ROBBED

He keeps the powder supplied by the Department of National Defence in a dugout near a park pagoda. At one time he kept quite a supply on hand, but in troubled times during the war and shortly after he found the lock of his cache had been tampered with. Once the padlock was sawed through to within one-sixteenth of an inch, Snowden shakes his head when he talks of this.

"There was enough powder there at that time to do a lot of damage," he said.

SUNSHINE CAMP

REQUIRES COTS

Worn-out Furniture Must Be Replaced for Children Going To Sasenoon

Children's cots are urgently needed at once, for the Fred Landsberg Sunshine Camp at Sasenoon, B.C. Those in use in previous seasons are completely worn out, and must be replaced if small children, born in need of good food, proper care in satisfactory country surroundings, are not to be deprived of their stay at the camp.

During the next few days, when the most fortunate members of the community are driving at their leisure through the glorious countryside surrounding Victoria, bringing their small ones home to comfortable suppers and cool beds for their tired little bodies, they are asked to think of other youngsters, so differently situated. After all, it is no fault of the children that the living conditions of the last few years have been far from satisfactory for their parents.

YOUNGSTERS' HOLIDAY

Even in beautiful Victoria, there are many families whose members are unable to get into the country.

PERFECTION

Aim at perfection in everything, though in most things it is unattainable. However, they who aim at it, and persevere, will come much nearer to it than those whose laziness and despondency make them give it up as unattainable.—Chesterfield.

"The Great Ziegfeld." With William Powell and Myrna Loy, Current Feature

Besides offering the public such famous names as William Powell, Myrna Loy, Louise Rainer, Virginia Bruce and Fannie Brice, "The Great Ziegfeld," opening today at the Capitol Theatre, sensation of the show world, introduces a new name in the person of Jean Chaburn, M-G-M's newest "find," and an actress destined some day to reach the pinnacles of the stars in whose company she makes her film debut.

After appearing in tests with William Powell in which she substituted for Myrna Loy and Louise Rainer, Miss Chaburn was the subject for a test of "Mary Lou," one of the principal roles of the picture. The test was for another actress, but Miss Chaburn played "Mary Lou" so admirably that Hunt Stromberg, the producer, was summoned to the "test stage" by Director Robert Z. Leonard.

Next to the co-starring roles of Miss Loy, as Billie Burke, and Miss Rainer as Anna Held, Jean Chaburn's role is "Frieda," one of the important characterizations in the spectacular musical production.

ATLAS Grand opera is brought to the screen exactly as it is presented on the stages of the Metropolitan and Paris Opera Houses in RKO-Radios' "I Dream Too Much," now showing at the Atlas Theatre. Debut picture of the world famed prima donna, Lily Pons.

COLUMBIA Alton Skipworth's latest starring vehicle in "Hitch Hike Lady," the current feature at the Columbia Theatre, which shows for the last time today. Depicting an elderly English housekeeper, who has hitch hiked her way across America to California, her role gives scope for full development of her lovable character, and really fine talents.

PLAZA Joan Crawford's Theatre, determined to build a career by his own efforts, appears as one of the multitudes in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Mutiny on the Bounty," showing for the last time today at the Plaza Theatre. He is Hal Le Sueur, whom Director Frank Lloyd picked to play the role of Millward, a member of the mutinous crew. Produced by Irving G. Thalberg, "Mutiny on the Bounty" has a cast of more than fifty outstanding players headed by Charles Laughton, Clark Gable and Franchot Tone.

DOMINION In this mechanical theatre there is natural interest in anything that has to do with the planes and the mystery of events that occur behind the scenes in the great industries. This interest attains its highest pitch when it concerns the lives of the men who test and fly the planes before they leave the factories. All of which probably accounts for the enthusiasm with which an audience at the Dominion Theatre last night greeted Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's appropriately titled picture, "Speed."

IMMORTAL FANTASY TO BE FIRST ATTRACTION

Shakespeare's immortal fantasy, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," which will be presented at the New Oak Bay Theatre as its opening attraction July 15, is brought to Victoria through the co-operation of the Junior Women's Auxiliary of the Jubilee Hospital. Dick Powell has the romantic role of Lysander in the lavish production, which was made into a gigantic spectacle of the famous producer, Max Reinhardt. The picture is set to the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's music, with special dances arranged and splendid scenery and effects throughout.

EFFECTIVENESS

The first secret of effectiveness is always that of living in one's own time. It is along the lines of the present, feeling its deepest needs and appreciating its most valuable opportunities, that men generally find their best opportunities for achieving manhood for themselves and rendering service to others.

PREDICTS GAINS IN ADVERTISING

New York Authority Says More Newspaper Space to Be Bought in Next Six Months

SEATTLE, July 7.—A tremendous increase in national newspaper advertising during the next six months was foreseen today at the annual convention of the Pacific Advertising Clubs Association.

Leslie M. Barton, New York City, expressed the opinion businessmen would put more money into newspaper advertising "rather than give it to the Government under the new tax bill."

"Advertising particularly within the building industries will exceed anything we have ever known," Barton said in a prepared address.

He praised newspaper advertising as "more effective than any other medium."

Security Prices Lose Ground at New York Mart

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP).—Influenced by the drought and steel labor situations, stock market leaders continued their downward slide.

While a few issues bucked the trend, losses of 1 to 2 or more points predominated.

As in the previous session farm implements, motors, rails and allied shares reflected the probability of restricted agricultural incomes because of short yields in the principal growing districts.

Feeling in some financial quarters that the steel corporations would be confronted with a strike soon or late brought further selling in the steel division.

The Associated Press average of sixty stocks dropped 6 1/2 points at 629 on top of yesterday's decline of 5. Transfers totaled 996,190 shares against 844,220 the day before.

Petroleum shares attracted a little attention. Gasoline demand appeared to be growing and crude oil production last week showed a sizeable decline.

J. I. Case, off nearly 6 points, showed a net recovery of 3 at 162 1/2. Other prominent on the downside included International Harvester at 79 7/8, U.S. Steel at 57 1/4, Bethlehem at 47, General Motors at 67 3/8, Northern Pacific at 24 3/8 and Union Pacific at 12 1/4.

Irregular price movements ruled in the bond market.

High-grade corporate issues tended a bit higher along with most of the Government list, but speculative issues weakened slightly.

Polish Government obligations held the spotlight in the foreign department. The 6 1/2 of 1940 dropped 4 1/2 points to 53 1/2 and the 7 1/2 of 1947 improved 3 3/4 at 68 3/4.

Wheat Values Are Reduced At Winnipeg Close—Export Selling Heavy

WINNIPEG, July 7 (AP).—Late profit-taking and sudden closing price drops at Liverpool, Chicago, wheat future prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today. Despite continuing adverse weather forecasts, cooler weather and scattered showers across Western Canada helped check prices after four days of strong advances.

Values at the close were 11-8 to 15-8 lower, July at 91 1/4, Oct. 90 1/4 to 90 3/8 and December 90 3/8.

Export business was placed at 1,250,000 bushels despite a 5-12 cent per bushel advance in overnight offers, c.i.f. Liverpool. All North American markets again climbed in early trade with Winnipeg wheat futures touching new seasonal heights. Minneapolis prices reached the five-cent limit at one time and Chicago gained at 4-12 cent advance.

Late weakness at Chicago, however, carried local prices into a downward trend. Liverpool prices, influenced by North American drought conditions, closed 11-2 to 13-4 higher.

P.T. track generally was heavy, buying orders meeting substantial offerings credited to the Wheat Board and profit-takers.

Market support was attributed to export houses. United States mills, overseas and southern accounts and investments.

Rapid fluctuations in futures reduced volume in the cash wheat market, although the durum met considerable demand, with No. 3 trading as much as two cents higher.

Coarse grains met broad trade, excellent, speculative and professional buying being reported. Rye and flax values led the price advance.

TORONTO GOLDS ADVANCE AGAIN

Medium-Priced Golds Gain Strongly—Silvers Soft And Oils Easier

TORONTO, July 7 (AP).—Mining shares moved upwards today in an active session of the Toronto Stock Exchange. Strong buying in medium-priced golds moved the yellow metal index up 1 1/2 to 143 1/2.

Buffalo Ankerite closed at 85 for 60 cent gain.

Lake-shore in the junior gold group advanced 1 1/4 to 59 3/4, while Dome added 5-8 to 56. Wright-Hargreaves, Little Long Lac and Teck-Hughes were 5 to 10 cents higher.

Oblique finished off 13 cents to 297.

Silver stocks were soft and oils easier. Calgary and Edmonton and Home Oil were lower.

MINTO CLOSES UP NINE CENTS

Gold and Cariboo Gold Gain Six Cents in Strong Market at Vancouver

VANCOUVER, July 7 (AP).—Heavy trading in Minto Gold, which transacted 87,000 shares and closed up 9 cents at 71 after selling as high as 74, marked the bulk of activity on the Vancouver Stock Exchange today. Oil issues were more active with some substantial gains registered. Transfers totaled 254,000 shares.

Gold and Cariboo Gold gained 6 cents at 71 and 70 1/2, while Minto Gold added 5-8 to 71 1/2. 122 Nicola firmed 1-2 at 16 in fair dealings, while B.R.X. at 14 and Premier at 24 1/2, each added a point. Other gold issues were unchanged or fractionally higher.

Calgary and Edmonton topped the oil group, gaining 7 at 147. Dalhousie was up 3 at 60, and McLeod 1 at 37. Amalgamated firmed a fraction at 12. Home closed 4 at 102, although no sales were transacted, and British Dominion was off 1 at 28.

Base metals held steady to lower in weak trading. Pond Oreille was down 8 at 65, while Noble Five firmed a fraction at 23-4. B.C. Nickel at 33 and Goldonda at 10 were unchanged.

News of Mines

Lakeshore milled close to 450,000 tons of ore during the first six months of 1936, according to official estimates. Production of gold had a value close to $850,000. Profits are running at a rate of well over $5 per share, and after all contingencies, leave a profit of considerably more than $4 per share annually.

Red Lake Gold mine is believed to have averages of $23.20 to the ton in the ore bodies so far developed.

Bidgood has a length of 265 feet in No. 5 vein, carrying 21.20 per ton across four feet in width, and embracing an estimated 22,000 tons in the ore shoot. There are good prospects of this being extended, and with other good possibilities of other veins making ore at depth.

Silver Gold has about 400 feet in length of ore at the tenth level, with about 75 per cent of this being high grade and the remaining 25 per cent average mine grade. The width is about six feet.

J-M Consolidated will complete mill installation within two weeks. Estimates show 45,000 tons of ore blocked out.

Chromium Mining and Smelting Company has a new 100-ton mill about 85 per cent complete and should be in production late in July. The company is well financed, with over $500,000 in cash and supplies, and has been profitable for some time. At the smelter there are four furnaces in operation, with a fifth being installed.

Falconbridge is meeting developments that are adding at an enormous rate to ore reserves. These reserves have risen to probably $55,000,000 or more at present. Approximately one-half mile in length of drifting has been done at the 1,200-foot level of the new shaft, and the full half mile is in ore. This shaft is located about 2,500 feet from the former main shaft. The indications are that this new ore will connect with the old body from which production is coming, in which case Falconbridge would have nearly one mile in length of almost continuous ore.

Sylvanite has laid out $200,000 on the Del Norte venture in Porcepene and has earmarked a further $200,000 which will carry through mill construction and bring in a new producer of gold. Sylvanite has a surplus of about $1,000,000, is maintaining dividends at 20 per cent and is carrying out a very extended campaign of development on its main property at Kirkland Lake.

Premier Gold—An advance party was flown to the Yukon property, fifty miles north of Subic Bay. Mine last week and shipment of supplies and considerable crew by plane was to continue this week. Work is getting under way earlier in the season than last year on the promising holdings of Premier and it is understood that a much more extensive exploration programme is planned.

Salmon Gold—Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company has started prospecting camp for a good season's work at Salmon Gold eight miles beyond Big Muskeg, in Portland Canal district.

Wright-Hargreaves—The gross value of the bullion produced by Wright-Hargreaves Mines, Limited, in the quarter ended May 31, 1936, was $1,910,000 according to a notice accompanying the cheques for dividends. Production in the three months was obtained from the millings of 82,448 tons of ore, a daily milling rate of 1,660 tons. This compares with an output in the quarter ended March 31 of $1,930,000 from the treatment of 85,520 tons of ore, an average daily milling

Stock Prices Drop In Reduced Trading At Eastern Markets

MONTREAL, July 7 (AP).—Interlisted issues, influenced by Wall Street, led an orderly decline in most sections of Montreal Stock Exchange today.

Narrow losses for International Nickel at 49 1/2. Consolidated Smelters at 53-4 and Noranda at 58 1/2-2, were marked up at the close.

Brazilian lost 1-4 at 127-8 in light trading. Quebec Power and B.C. Power eased a little. C.P.R. flour preferred, at 220, showed a loss of 3 points. C.P.R. Canada Car and Canadian Celanese ruled lower, while National Breweries, Alcohol and Dominion Textile gained fractions.

WHAT'S DOING ON THE LOCAL RETAIL PRODUCE MARKET

Grade "A" eggs advanced one cent per dozen on all sizes yesterday, the retail price now being recorded at 30, 29 and 27 cents per dozen for large, medium and pullet eggs, respectively. Butter prices were unchanged.

First shipments of California (fresh) peaches, of good quality, and to sell at from 25 to 30 cents per dozen, arrived yesterday. A shipment of preserving apricots, perhaps the only shipment this year because of the spoiled crops in the Okanagan, will arrive here this morning. The retail price was given as at 10 cents per pound. The apricots will be imported from Seattle.

A few strawberries remain on the market at 10 cents per box and three boxes for 25 cents, while raspberries and loganberries continue to swell the market. Raspberries were selling at two hallocks for 25 cents, while loganberries were down to 10 cents per basket and three for 25 cents.

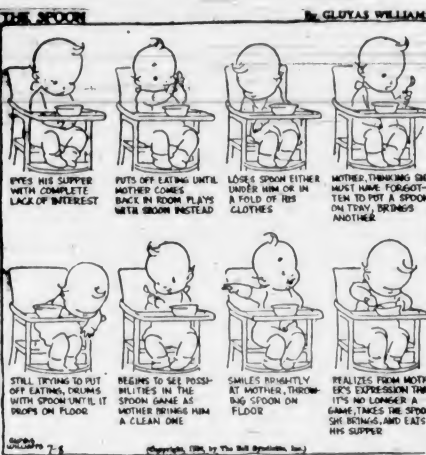

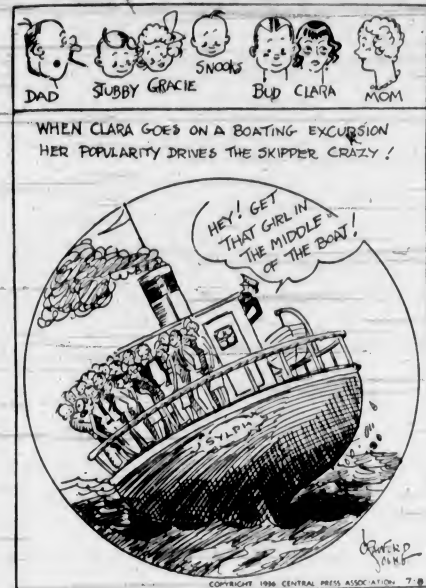

Asparagus was reported to be cleaned up with only a few cases yet remaining. The first shipment of California sweet potatoes arrived yesterday and will go on the retail market today at 15 cents per pound. Honeydew melons were quiet at 20 to 30 cents each, while watermelon was off slightly at 6 cents per pound.

A car of citrus fruits arrived yesterday, while last night wholesalers unpacked 500 stems of bananas. Bananas were off to 5 cents per bunch, while California cabbage was down 2 cents to 4 cents per pound.

Jane Dixon Says:

TWO WOMEN INSPIRE TODAY'S ARTICLE. ONE A WIDOW WHO WANTS A CONGENIAL MATE, THE OTHER A WOMAN WHO'S LOST HER MAN TO AN IRISH LASS—THE ANSWER'S THE SAME TO BOTH WOMEN

I admit that at times I get into a froth of impatience with the Learning Towers of Femininity?

Where have some women been during the last decade—the last couple of decades?

Haven't they heard about the new freedom for the sex, the new equality, the new opportunity?

I've been a woman all my life.

I've lived, loved and worked.

There are no words in the English language. In any language, that can convey my appreciation for the privilege of living in an age which allows women the right of expression.

Slaves-under-the-skin—the old leaning tower days are all over.

Do not ask others to do for you that which you cannot do for yourselves.

It is your right to live your own lives—to find your own happiness.

DON'T COME IN STAMPED ENVELOPES

Dear Jane:

Here is another lonely widow.

Not a young wealthy one, past middle age, still not an old woman. Strictly modern and shall be that way always.

I would love to meet some nice man who would enjoy good companionship and a congenial home life. Say a man around sixty. One who, like myself, is alone and looking for a pal.

I'm not exactly headed for the poor farm, so I'm not in search of a meal ticket. I like to go places and enjoy myself—not much fun alone. I've been told I'm not hard on the eyes. I wear good clothes. I have a nice home, beautifully kept.

The old saying is, the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. I'm taking pride in my cooking. I want to meet a lonely man—a gentleman, of course—to share my life—E.S.

Answer: The man who is worthy to share your life does not come in a stamped envelope. Interest yourself actively in the worth-while things being done in your community. Join a political club. Volunteer for work in welfare organizations. When you meet interesting people, invite them to your home. Get on your toes. This is a working world, not an aching world. Your psychology of marriage is all wrong. You are trying to find the good companion by offering yourself and a home. What you should do is to build up for the position that which would inspire a real man to offer himself and a home.

THE RIGHT TO MAKE A NEW DECISION

Dear Miss Dixon:

I'm a woman of forty.

My problem is—I've been engaged for six years. The man promised to love me until death.

Everything was fine until he met an Irish lass. I hate her.

He won't even take me to a movie since he met her. His love has cooled.

Miss Dixon, how can I make him forget this girl?

Can you help me out of what seems to be a hopeless muddle?

—Floesie.

Answer: You are what makes the muddle "hopeless," Floesie.

At forty, you should know there is no way to compel a man to come back when he doesn't want to come.

The muddle does not exist in the minds—perhaps not in the hearts—of the man and the Irish lass.

You are muddled and befuddled because you refuse to accept the cruel truth—that regardless of the past, it is the right of the individual to make a new decision. True enough, you invested six years in a promise and a hope—but now that your investment shows a total loss, be wise enough not to squander another day on it.

If you will give the same thought and effort to finding new friends and new interests that you are giving to the reclamation of the man who defaulted on his promises, you will discover a real happiness ahead of you.

WOULD ACCEPT REDUCED RATES

McGeer Says Vancouver Council Should Congratulate Alberta Premier

VANCOUVER, July 7.—Mayor G. G. McGeer told the budget committee of the City Council today they should send a letter of congratulation to Premier Aberhart of Alberta "if you have any brains."

He broke into a discussion of whether the city should accept reduced interest payments on Alberta bonds.

"But we, as representatives of the taxpayers," began Alderman J. J. McRae, when the mayor interrupted.

"Yes, and as representatives of the taxpayers you accept a notice from the banks of interest reduction on deposits to 1 1/2 per cent."

"Alberta bonds are a contract," replied Alderman McRae. "It is true for years the banks paid 3 per cent interest, but bank interest on deposits is not in the form of a contract."

BY IMPLICATION
"Bank interest was under contract by implication," replied the mayor.

"Aberhart," continued McGeer, "does not ask you to accept lower interest, he just tells you what he will pay. The Legislature of Alberta has reduced the interest rate, and Aberhart not only has the power to reduce interest, but also the Legislature has the power to authorize him to refuse to pay principal."

"And the British Columbia Legislature has the same power," was the mayor's parting remark as he started to leave the meeting, which he had just entered when the Alberta bond interest came up.

DAY OF ADJUSTMENTS
"It puts the City Council on the spot, whether or not to accept the Alberta cheque," stated Alderman G. C. Miller.

The mayor had not quite left and replied: "I tell you the bondholders are going to sweat more. This is the day of adjustments. 'Pie from the wrath to come,'" he quoted.

The committee referred the subject to Wednesday's meeting of the City Council.

When the mayor entered the room the committee had just been informed by Acting Comptroller Frank Jones that he had received from Alberta a cheque for $11,261 as interest on $546,000 worth of Alberta 4 1/2 per cent bonds held in the Vancouver sinking fund.

The interest was at the stipulated interest to the end of May and at 2 1/2 for the month of June.

Chairman Miller told the committee a number of private holders of Alberta bonds in Vancouver have refused to accept interest cheques.

Alderman W. W. Smith drew attention to Calgary and Edmonton, asserting they had refused to accept reduced interest.

French Fascist Rallies His Forces

In addition to national strikes, Leon Blum, France's Socialist Premier, has a severe political threat on his hands. Colonel Alain de la Rocque, leader of the French Fascist veterans' group, hopes to force several demands upon Blum, and he may even attempt to seize the Government control. Above: we see the vigorous leader on parade with officials of his organization, and close-up.

CHAPTER XXX

Taking off the yellow knitted hat again, Gay put her head against the pillow on the divan. But she was restless, fighting against a disappointment almost too great to bear.

Chris and Evelyn Ewing were on their honeymoon.

She went out on the balcony, feeling the wind stir her hair, and looked toward the sea.

"I'll never remind you, if we should meet again, that once you loved me. You'll never know that flying to you tonight I saw the dreams that Alan tarnished made whole again."

In the morning I'll go away and no one will know I've been except the woman downstairs who didn't see my face."

It was there that Chris found her when he came, standing on the balcony, her hands resting on the ledge, her hair disturbed by the breeze, and her eyes looking toward the sea.

He had come in quietly, not wanting to awaken his landlady.

Or was it the vision of her he had seen so many times, a vision which at times had been maddeningly real?

He said, "Gay, is it...?"

She turned and caught her breath—when she was looking at him, he said, "That was a long speech you made, but a good speech, Gay."

His frown was both amused and perplexed. "Your hair is still red, so I guess it must be you."

He held her close. "I'm crazy. You told me you couldn't put your love story into words for me. But you did. You put it in every line of your play. I've put everything behind me to come and find you. When I got here, a woman told me you'd gone away. I was going to stay tonight and leave in the morning."

"Leave? Why?"

"Because of Evelyn. You went away with Evelyn, she said. I won't interfere if you're in love with her. I treated you badly, Chris. I've grown up since then, and I know that to Alan I was only a conquest and to Gregg another possession."

I told Gregg I'd marry him, but tonight I changed my mind because I know I'd always feel unfaithful to you and because your life, whatever and wherever it is, is my life too, from now on. But if you and Evelyn...

He smiled. "Evelyn is the best pal a man ever had, a man writing a play and a man so interested in that play he forgets to eat. She's fine and substantial and her tennis is great. Three days ago I went on a fishing trip with her uncle."

"I thought you were on your honeymoon..."

"A man doesn't want to marry a girl who plays better tennis than he does and catches bigger fish. There's nothing romantic between us."

"With both hands he took her face and put his mouth close to hers. 'How can I talk about other people, fine as they are, when I want to say I love you as much as when I left? My love hasn't diminished or increased. It was all there... from the beginning. And why do I say I love you when you already know it? Why do I talk when I want to kiss you?'"

Bending his head, he put his lips against hers. Gay felt hard, strong arms go around her.

"You're crying," Chris said. "I'm happy. Once you said cruel, stinging things to me, Chris. That was when I was important and you weren't, you thought. Now you're on your way to fame and I'm only a girl who has burned her bridges to come to you."

"I'm not going to say I'll give you this or that."

"I want only you."

Frowning, he pointed out at sea. "It's dark now, but soon there'll be patches of light. When the light comes, we'll go somewhere for breakfast and walk along a little way until we come to the cathedral..."

She was smiling now. "Then we'll go into the cathedral, Chris."

"You'll look awfully little in that big empty church. Then a dignified old gentleman will say words over us, pretty solemn words, and shake my hand. Then we'll come out, and the sun will be shining, and black women will be walking down the streets with baskets on their heads, and little black boys will be playing in the streets..."

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

"AIN'T"

"I ain't yet ripe for your orthography," wrote a brother-in-law to Noah Webster.

This communication being in the family, as it were, "ain't" may not have unduly impinged upon the sensibilities of the progenitor of our dictionary, which brands it not so much incorrect as colloquial.

"Ain't," which is tainted by literature unges—a contraction of "are not" or "am not," being similarly requisitioned for "is not."

Low language it undoubtedly is, though it is heard in surprising places.

MRS. B. R. HILL PASSES AWAY AT ROYAL CITY

NEW WESTMINSTER, July 7.—Mrs. Bernard R. Hill, seventy-five-year-old resident of the Burnaby Lake district, died at her home today.

Mrs. Hill was born in London, England and came here forty-three years ago.

She is survived by her husband and two sons here, another son, Minard R. Hill, at Yellow Point, Vancouver Island, and one daughter.

JUDGMENT

In any case, if having judged as well as we can, we are nevertheless mistaken, we should not grieve. It is not in man's nature to know everything.—Selected.
